Ukraine-returned medical students face uncertainty

▶ Future of 30 students from Mysuru hangs in balance

▶ Govts, Medical Council not helping after initial assurances

Mysuru, July 27 (MTY&BCT)- Over 30 medical students who returned to Mysuru due to the ongoing war in Ukraine are ruing about their uncertain future. These students returned to India in March and have been attending their classes online, even completing their semesters remotely.

With Ukraine battered economically by war and coping with an uncertain future, it is unlikely that these students would be able to return soon. As a result, the students hope for relief measures from the State and Union Governments.

A file photo of Ukraine-returned medical students coming out of Mysuru DC Office after submitting a memorandum in March 2022.

Yesterday, the Union Health Ministry said no Indian Medical College would accommodate the Ukraine-returned medical students as no permission was given by the National Medical Commission to transfer or accommodate any foreign medical student in any Indian institute or University. This was stated by Dr. Bharati Pravin Pawar, the Minister of State for Health in a written response in the Rajya Sabha.

"Foreign Medical Students/ Graduates are either covered under Screening Test Regulations, 2002 or Foreign Medical Graduate Licentiate Regulations, 2021. There are no such provisions in the Indian Medical Council Act 1956 and the National Medical Commission Act, 2019 as well as in the Regulations to accommodate or transfer medical students from any foreign medical institutes to Indian Medical Colleges," she said.

No one cares now

Priyanka Guru Mallesh, who came back to Mysuru just before Russia began pounding Ukraine, told Star of Mysore this morning that they were confused about what next.

Priyanka is pursuing her MBBS second year at Bukovinian State Medical University (BSMU) — one of the largest higher educational establishments in Chernivtsi.

"We have holidays till August end now and I have completed online classes till June. My University is asking me to pay the fees for the next semester. But I am confused about what to do. War is continuing and there is no help or guidance from the Central and Karnataka Governments. When we came to India, we were assured of all help. But now, no one cares," she said.

"I came back to Mysuru on March 4 and online classes started around two months. Our next semester will begin online in September, which is just not enough for medical studies. Karnataka Medical Education Minister had assured us of all help including continuing education in Indian Colleges, but now, there is no news. When countries like Ghana and Nigeria have absorbed students who returned from Ukraine, why our Governments cannot do the same," asked another student on condition of anonymity.

Mysuru, July 27 (PM&DM)- Maintaining that widespread anguish against continued British hegemony and colonialisation and the far-reaching vision of the erstwhile Mysore Maharajas paved the way for the establishment of University of Mysore (UoM), Tamil Nadu Governor R.N. Ravi said that the UoM should carry forward the rich legacy left by the Mysore rulers.

Delivering the Foundation Day address at Crawford Hall here this morning, he stated that it is a matter of great delight for him to be among the University faculty and students on the occasion of the 106th Foundation Day of this prestigious Varsity founded by Nalwadi Krishnaraja Wadiyar.

EDITOR'S BOTTOMLINE

The universe is a storehouse of abundant opportunities and challenges. In the milieu of contemporary life where positives and negatives co-exist to compete and shape our thoughts and actions, it is hard to cultivate an appropriate mindset which is comfortable and ideal. While scarcity mindset is predominantly characterised by fear and doubt, the abundance mindset displays trust, self-confidence, optimism and belief in the existence of plentiful possibilities. The former prompts you to hold on to what you have, and leads you to a narrow view of things. The latter encourages you to think big, look at opportunities, expand and use your potential and take calculated risks.

The root cause for a constricted mind is the belief that the available resources are limited and not enough to share. In fact, the opposite is true: resources are abundant and enough for everyone in this world. Cultivating and living in an abundance mindset ensures an unlimited, a full and satisfying life alongside our personal and spiritual development. Some of the methods of creating such a mindset are to observe and regulate our thoughts, live in gratitude, pursue right passions, practice positive affirmations and work towards a noble purpose in life. Bhagavadgita says, the main obstacle is the mind itself. It is restless, turbulent with thoughts of hatred, anger, lust, greed, envy, anxiety, fear, attachment and violence, seeking vengeance when desires are not fulfilled. However, when properly controlled and regulated, mind regains its inherent strength of discrimination and determination towards the path of righteousness and success.

The instafamous mirror beach of Japan

Tokyo: Chichibugahama Beach is a popular tourist destination in Mitoyo City, Japan which rose to fame thanks to photo-sharing social media platforms.

A once obscure seaside destination in Japan's Kagawa Prefecture, this place turned into a magnet for Instagram influencers virtually overnight. It all started in 2016 when authorities in Mitoyo City organised a photo competition to boost local tourism. One of the most eye-catching entries featured two children reflected in the shallow waters of Chichibugahama and the visual effect was so stunning that the idea of using this mirror effect as a tourist draw turned into a marketing success story.

A place that any locals hardly knew about started drawing tens of thousands of tourists from all over Japan in just a couple of months, and it was all virtually because of a single photo that got a lot of attention on social media. Nowadays, it's common to see social media users gathering along the one-kilometer coast of Chichibugahama at sunset, struggling to get an eye-catching photo.

Tattoos that change when knees are bent

Paris: French tattoo artist Veks Van Hillik specialises in clever black and white artworks that change shape when the person bends their arms or legs.

Tattoo artists usually steer shy of elbows and knees, because of the way their designs are warped when the client bends their arms or legs, but Veks Van Hillik embraces the challenge, creating mesmerizing tattoos that turn into something completely different when people bend and unbend their joints. Examples of these ingenious designs include an elbow-positioned scarab that opens its wings when the person straightens their arm or an expanding koi fish.

Mystery shrouds death of Gram Panchayat Member at resort

J.M. Satish

Mysuru, July 27- A Gram Panchayat (GP) Member was found dead under mysterious circumstances at a resort on the outskirts of city and his wife has suspected that he has been murdered.

The deceased is Haliyur GP Member J.M. Satish (34), a resident of Javaregowdanakoppal, Chunchanakatte hobli in K.R. Nagar taluk. As election to the GP President's post was to be held, Satish was staying along with other GP Members at the resort but he died under mysterious circumstances a day before the election was held.

Details: Haliyur GP consists of 11 Members and Haliyur Mahesh, who was the President, had resigned. The election for the President's post was scheduled to take place today (July 27).

As there was a tough competition for the President's post, one of the aspirants for the post had taken 11 GP Members including Satish on a 20-day tour to religious places including Kukke Subramanya, Dharmasthala and other tourist places.

After returning from the tour on Monday night, they had stayed put at a resort in R.T. Nagar on the outskirts of city.

After having dinner, all those who had returned from the tour retired to their individual rooms and the next day (July 26), Satish was found dead in his room. As soon as the incident came to light, other GP Members informed the Police and Jayapura Police, who reached the spot, conducted mahazar and shifted the body to MMC&RI mortuary, where post-mortem was conducted and the body was handed over to the family members.

Jayapura Police, who have registered a case of unnatural death, are investigating.

Meanwhile, deceased Satish's wife has alleged that her husband has been murdered. But as everyone were staying in individual rooms, Satish's death has become a mystery. Sources opined that by looking at the state of the dead body, Satish may have suffered a heart attack and breathed his last after writhing in pain.

It is only after a thorough investigation it would be known whether Satish was murdered or died of heart attack or illness.

Operation to capture rogue elephants

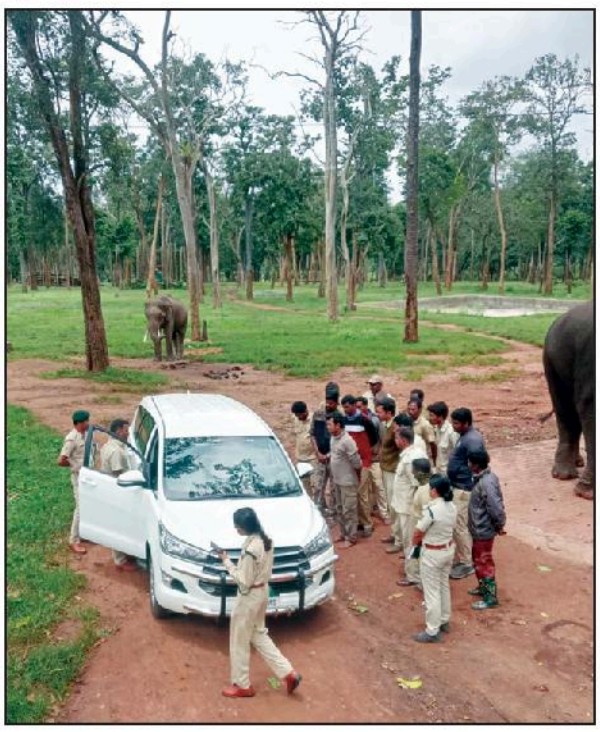
Mathigod Elephant Camp Mahouts refuse to participate till demands are met

Hunsur, July 27 (Hanagod Mahesh &KS)-The Mahouts and Kavadis at Mathigod Elephant camp have refused to participate in the operation to capture two rogue elephants in Ramanagar division till their demands are met.

Ramanagar Forest officials had sought elephants Bheema and Ganesh for the operation to capture them and to radio collar them and Nagarahole ACF Satish, who went to Mathigod Elephant Camp, instructed the Mahouts and Kavadis to go to Ramanagar along with the elephants to take part in the operation.

But the Mahouts and Kavadis refused to take part in the operation till their demands are met. Though the DCF and the ACF tried to convince them, their appeal went in vain as the Mahouts and Kavadis stood on their grounds.

Meanwhile, Mahouts and Kavadis Association has stated that the Mahouts and Kavadis will not take their elephants to any operation till their demands are met.



Forest officials interacting with Mahouts and Kavadis at Mathigod Elephant Camp.

It may be recalled that the Mahouts and Kavadis have taken a unanimous decision to boycott this year's Dasara by not taking their elephants to Mysuru if their immediate demand of a pay hike is not implemented by Aug. 5, two days before Gajapayana (Aug. 7).

At a meeting of Mahouts and Kavadis Association held recently at Dubare Elephant Camp in Kodagu, Mahouts and Kavadis from Dubare, Anekad, Sakrebailu, Rampura and Mathigodu Elephant Camps decided not to take the elephants to Mysuru if their demands are not met.

Association Vice-President J.K. Dhobi, who has been a Mahout for nine years, said that there is severe pay disparity among Forest Department staff and when it comes to elephants, Mahouts and Kavadis take all the risks but are paid meagrely.

City Roads and Dasara: Some suggestions

Sir,

Apropos to the recent news item in Star of Mysore titled "City roads await Dasara for salvation," it is a happy news for every Mysurean that finally our roads which are badly damaged and lying neglected since the past 8-9 months would hopefully get repaired. But I would like to suggest and bring to the notice of our elected representatives and the Mysuru City Corporation (MCC) authorities the following points:

1. Focus first on repairing the roads which need immediate attention, those that are barely motorable. Rather than focusing only on roads along the Jumboo Savari route or the ones where tourists roam, a holistic survey should be carried out where roads used to maximum extent by daily city commuters which are in horrible state should be identified and repaired first.

2. Focus on all localities of the city for carrying out road repair works sans petty politics. Prominent roads in each locality or connecting roads should be the priority.

3. Ensure that the quality of work undertaken is good. We don't want roads that can barely last till next year given the copious rainfall this year and probably the next year too.

4. Use newer and more durable technology for road construction instead of the usual bitumen (tar) which are not very costly. Consult experts in the field if needed.

We saw how the recent visit of our PM gave a good facelift to roads along his route. Let's hope this Dasara will be a boon for all roads of our city and its citizens rather than only being a eyewash to the tourists.

Mysore Royal Family owns Baby Betta: Pramoda Devi

- 'It is private property; trial blast consent not obtained'
- 'Government, officers are aware of accession treaty'
- 'No other royal family is treated in India like this'
- 'I am happy that the blasts have been stopped now'

Pramoda Devi

Mysuru, July 27 (RK&BCT)- Member of the erstwhile Mysore royal family Pramoda Devi Wadiyar has opposed the trial blasts at Baby Betta in Pandavapura taluk and said that the proposed blast site belonged to the royal family and her consent was not obtained for the blasts.

"1,623 acres of land in Baby Betta belongs to the royal family as per the inventory of properties signed by the Government. The property where the trial blast is proposed is a settled matter way back in 1950. It is the private property belonging to the late Maharaja of Mysore as per the list of immovable properties accepted by the Government of India at the time of the accession of the States," she told reporters yesterday.

Taking exception to the way the Government was acting with regard to the properties of the royal family, Pramoda Devi said "The Government is acting as if we are trying to encroach on others' land. This is how the Government is torturing us. No other royal families are being treated like this in India."

"Since 1950, 1,623 acres of the hillock belong to us. Baby Betta is included in the property sharing deed signed by the State of Mysore with the Government of India. This is private property and conducting trail blasts in that area is not right. For trial blasts, the experts should identify Government areas. They have plenty of lands and don't understand why our land has to be chosen for the blasts. Scientists will be aware of these factors and they very well know the distance between the blast sites and the KRS Dam. I learnt that five places in Baby Betta have been selected for the blasts. I am happy that the blasts have now stopped due to the protests from farmers," she said.

Mining a recent activity

"Not that the Government and the officers do not know. They are aware of the facts, they have the list of properties owned by the Government and the royal family and they have access to the Government order signed during accession and also they know who are the signatories. Mining was not there earlier and it is a recent phenomenon," she explained.

She said that she wrote a letter to the Deputy Commissioner of Mandya S. Aswathi urging her to stop blasts in the Baby Betta region. "Baby Betta is an arid land. On July 22 itself, I sent an email to the authorities concerned against this trial blast as I learnt from the media about the same, but I did not get any reply," she said.

Asked whether she is mulling any legal step if the Mandya District Administration goes ahead with the trial blast, Pramoda Devi said, "We have raised our objection. If it gets addressed here itself, there is no need for us to take any further steps."

When reporters asked her whether the royal family wants to do mining in Baby Betta, she clarified that she has no such intentions. "There is nothing left to mine in Baby Betta. Also, you feel sad when you see the hill ranges of Ramanagara," she said.

During the course of the conversation with reporters, Pramoda Devi claimed no State Governments across India treats their royal families like in Karnataka. "There are no examples of Palace acquisitions or taking of properties for the throw-away price. I have been fighting the Mysore Palace case since 1998, and Bengaluru Palace case since 1996," she said.

MP Sumalatha seeks status quo on mining

Sumalatha

Mandya MP Sumalatha Ambarish has written a letter to Chief Minister Basavaraj Bommai, Mini-ster of Mines and Geology Halappa Achar and the Mandya DC S. Aswathi on Monday, asking them not to allow mining and to maintain the status quo in areas around the KRS Dam.

She urged the CM to continue the ban on mining around the Dam site for the safety of the Dam and also in the interest of the people and farmers. Tremors had been felt in a radius of 20 km around the KRS Dam following legal and illegal mining done using bore blast, silent blast, and rig blast.

"If mining is allowed based on the report of the controlled blast, the safety of the Dam and the people would be at risk. This is not just my opinion but also of the farmers and progressive organisations," she added.

Farmers protest

Activists of Karnataka Rajya Raitha Sangha staged a protest at the Mysuru DC Office yesterday opposing the proposed trial blasts and demanded a complete ban on mining in a radius of 20 km around the KRS Dam.

The farmers alleged that the trial blasts were green-signalled by the Government as it has bowed to the pressure from the mining lobby. They argued that farmers had opposed trial blasts earlier too and the teams were sent back. "The blast proposal is not transparent and the exercise is being carried out under pressure. The trial blasts have to be dropped," they demanded.

Pramoda Devi writes to Mandya DC

Aswathi

In a letter addressed to Mandya DC S. Aswathi on Monday, Pramoda Devi said, "It is learnt with regret that despite the mail informing you of the private ownership of Baby Betta, a trial blast is proposed as per the media reports. I reiterate the point made in my mail regarding the ownership of the property referred to in the subject matter."

"It is relevant to bring it to your kind notice that the Karnataka High Court has passed the order upholding the contention that the properties forming part of the accession treaty are private properties. The trial blast of explosives proposed at Baby Betta property in Pandavapura is the private property belonging to the late Maharaja of Mysore as per the list of immovable properties accepted by the Government of India at the time of the accession of the States. As this is a settled matter, kindly refrain from carrying out a trial blast at the proposed site for which my consent is not obtained, failing which I may be forced to take appropriate steps to safeguard my interest."

Mysore Varsity Foundation Day

TN Governor Ravi said that everyone should pay tribute to Nalwadi for his yeoman service to Mysuru and mankind.

Pointing out that it is important to understand the mind of the person (Nalwadi) who created the University, Ravi said that Nalwadi, feeling the pulse of the people who were deeply frustrated and anguished at the British, who propagated white supremacy, wasted no time in setting up the Mysore University for imparting education with a sense of Indianness.

"Nalwadi Krishnaraja Wadiyar has left us with a rich and resourceful legacy, for which we should be always grateful to him. The Maharaja sensed setting up of the University for imparting higher education keeping in mind Indian arts, music and other fields, at a time when British were portraying India as a despicable country," he said.

The Maharaja also thought it fit to establish a University in Mysore, the first one outside British India, as students in Mysore region were facing a lot of difficulty in going to Madras for higher education, Ravi said and added that UoM has grown by leaps and bounds over the years while maintaining a steady growth and providing a conducive atmosphere for studies.

Delving on the National Education Policy (NEP-2020) introduced by the Union Government, Ravi said that we have to look at it in a broader perspective and understand it much better. Stressing for a thorough study of NEP, he said we must appreciate the thinking and concepts behind it. UoM has the potential to become a much bigger National Centre of Excellence by introducing the characteristics of the NEP, he opined.

UoM Vice-Chancellor Prof. G. Hemantha Kumar said that the University, which was established on July 27, 1916, is celebrating the 106th Foundation Day, which is a matter of pride for the University. Stressing on the need for everyone to remember Nalwadi, he said that the contributions of Nalwadi remains unmatched and as such Mahatma Gandhi had called him Rajarshi. Contending that every step of Nalwadi was a milestone of progress, the VC said that the people of the entire State should be ever grateful to the erstwhile ruler for all his contributions, including the establishment of the University, which was supported by the then Dewan of Mysore Sir M. Visvesvaraya.

Titular head of erstwhile Mysore royal family Yaduveer Krishnadatta Chamaraja Wadiyar, who was the chief guest, said he was very much delighted to be a part of this glorious day. "It was Mummadi, the grandfather of Nalwadi who sowed the seeds of an institution of higher learning with the establishment of the then Raja School in Mysore in the 19th century. Nalwadi, realising the importance of establishing an institute of higher education, set up the UoM, which today stands as the first University outside British India and the sixth of the country. It is the farsighted vision of the legendary Nalwadi," he pointed out.

Yaduveer also observed that it is a matter of coincidence that the current Tamil Nadu (formerly Madras State) Governor R.N. Ravi has delivered the Foundation Day address of the University established by Nalwadi, as a mark of tribute to Jayachamaraja Wadiyar who served as Governor of Madras (1964 to 1966).

Earlier, the dignitaries offered floral tributes to the portrait of Nalwadi Krishnaraja Wadiyar. UoM Registrar Prof. R. Shivappa and others were present at the lecture programme.

No water supply since 5 days

Angry residents stage empty pot protest

Mysuru, July 27 (RKB,SSM& KS) - The residents of Srirampura, Vivekanandanagar and surrounding areas coming under Ward No. 59 and 64, staged an empty pot protest in front of Mysuru City Corporation (MCC) office this morning.

Prior to this, the angry residents, led by former MLA M.K. Somashekar, had blocked roads near Vivekananda Circle in city this morning. As neither the area Corporators nor the authorities concerned showed up, the protestors staged a demo in front of the MCC office.

The residents alleged that from the last five days there was no water supply and they were finding it difficult to carry out daily activities. Children are sent to school without a shower. There is shortage of drinking water too and cooking has become a major problem, the residents alleged.

Somashekar alleged that K.R. Constituency is facing an acute shortage of water while the Constituency MLA, the Mayor and the respective Corporators have turned a blind eye to the problems faced by the residents.

The MLA, who had assured of making the Constituency as a model one, has completely failed in discharging his duties, Somashekar said and blamed the MLA for neglecting the residents.

The protestors shouted slogans against the officials concerned and urged them to solve the water problem at the earliest.

MCC Commissioner G. Lakshmikantha Reddy, who visited the spot and heard the grievances of the residents, assured them of supplying water by evening. Following this, the residents withdraw their protest.

Meanwhile, a resident of KHB Colony in Kuvempunagar, called SOM office this morning and complained that there was no supply of water since Saturday. Though drinking water was supplied for a short period, that too during night on Sunday, there is no supply of water after that, she added.

Earlier, when there was disruption in supply of drinking water for more than two days, the Corporator used to arrange water tankers. But now, neither water tankers are arranged nor the Corporator receives our phone calls, she rued.

Ukraine-returned medical students

P. Sriganesh, a final year student at Zaporizhzhia State Medical University, told SOM that he has completed his online classes till June and now it is a holiday. "I do not know what the ground situation there is as online classes looked normal. But how long can we sustain only online lessons, I am not sure. Our University has told us that we will have to wait till September so that transfers or continuing education through relocation can be decided," he said.

Parent concern

Priyanka's father Guru Mallesh said that the Governments have to take a humanitarian view and come to the rescue of our children. "We have not started the war. This is an unprecedented and unavoidable situation. Initially, when our children came to Mysuru, we had many VIPs coming home including MLAs and MP. All of them assured of help but nothing came through," he regretted.

"What is the purpose of bringing Indian students here if their future is uncertain and hangs in balance? This is very unfair. The local MLAs and MPs must exert pressure on Governments to act, instead of being indifferent. In fact, unprecedented situations like these deserve special attention and humanity must prevail," Guru Mallesh added.

Kargil Vijay Diwas celebrated at Nexus Mall

Kargil Vijay Diwas was celebrated at Nexus Centre City Mall in Mysuru yesterday to remember the sacrifices of the martyred soldiers during the Kargil War 22 years ago. Besides paying homage to all the brave soldiers, the Nexus Mall management and staff felicitated the ex-army men following which students from Delhi Public School gave cultural and patriotic performances at Nexus Centre City Mall which was enjoyed by the audience.

DVG Award conferred on Dr. Gururaj Karajagi

Mysuru, July 27 (PM&DM)- Asserting that those who say all-time truth will remain forever in the minds of people, noted educationist Dr. Gururaj Karajagi opined that the thoughts and works of great personalities like Swami Vivekananda and D.V. Gundappa (DVG) will glow more with each passing day. He was speaking after being conferred with 'DVG Award' instituted by city's DVG Balaga Pratishtana at a programme organised by the Balaga at Vijnana Bhavan in Manasagangothri here recently.

Recalling his association with DVG, who was a great poet and widely known for his masterpiece 'Kaggas', Dr. Karajagi maintained that the blessings of the almighty was needed for a meeting with great personalities, which he fortunately got.

Pointing out that apart from DVG, the almighty's blessings also gave him an opportunity to meet literary giants such as Da.Ra. Bendre and G.P. Rajarathnam, Dr. Karajagi said he learnt a lot from these great personalities.

Asserting that DVG had engaged himself in societal service, he said that DVG was instrumental in the conduct of many widow marriages. Recounting an instance when DVG returned his wage in full to the erstwhile Maharajas when he learnt that only he had got the hike following Sir M. Visvesvaraya's recommendation while none others of the then Prajapratinidhi Sabha had got it, he said this shows DVG believed in self-respect and a large heart was more important than money and anything else.

The life of DVG was much bigger than his literature and as such, the great writer will always remain in the hearts of the people, he added.

Continuing, Dr. Karajagi observed that though it is easy to hear the sayings of Lord Ram and Mahatma Gandhi, it is hard to follow them in life. DVG, who is remembered abroad too, will remain in our memories forever as his 'Kaggas' are often quoted even in the Legislative Assembly and many other platforms.

Mysore University Vice-Chancellor Prof. G. Hemantha Kumar, who spoke after conferring the award on Dr. Karajagi, said that everyone knows about DVG's famous 'Kaggas.'

Asserting that DVG is like the 'Ashwathavruksha' in Kannada literature, he said that Dr. Karajagi, who received the award, is known as 'Nitya Gnana Dasohi' for his talks and discourses.

Dr. Gururaj Karajagi and his wife Parimala Karajagi were felicitated on the occasion. Pratishtana Convenor C. Kanakaraju, Vid. G.S. Natesh and others were present at the programme.

Sculptor L. Shivalingappa's books released

Mysuru, July 27 (PM&DM)- Maintaining that the erstwhile Mysore rulers had worked for the welfare of the people like no other kingdom in the country, MLC A.H. Vishwanath said that the democratic type of governance came into being during the rule of the Maharajas (Rajaprabhutva) itself.

He was speaking after releasing renowned Sculptor and Mysore Art Gallery Founder L. Shivalingappa's book titled 'Kannada Naadina Vachanakaararu - Sachitra Kathamaalike-1' at the programme organised under the joint aegis of Sri Nataraja Pratishtana, Sri Hosmutt, Sri Nataraja PU College for Women, Kannada Sahitya Kalakoota and Mysore Art Gallery at Sri Nataraja auditorium on Shankar Mutt Road in the city on Monday.

Contending that the State made progress in all fields under the rule of Chamaraja Wadiyar and Nalwadi Krishnaraja Wadiyar, Vishwanath said that the rule of the Maharajas was model to the entire world.

Noting that we have to remember the Wadiyars for introducing democratic system of governance, the MLC said that though there is democracy in England, the monarchy is still being respected and Queen Elizabeth is invited for Parliament. But the situation in our country is different, he regretted.

Recalling the conduct of Dasara in the past few decades, Vishwanath said that then Dasara was held under sponsorship. But now the scenario has drastically changed with the Government releasing anywhere between Rs. 10 crore and Rs. 20 crore for Dasara.

Reminiscing the days when he was the Mysuru District in-Charge Minister, Vishwanath said that the practice of 'Gajapayana' from Veeranahosahalli started when he was the Minister. In those days, the Dasara elephants used to walk 75 kms to reach Mysuru. But now this practice has been given a go by and elephants are being brought to the city in trucks, he said.

Author Shivalingappa said that painters are leading a life of difficulty as there is no encouragement for them. His book aims at introducing painting and other art works in all Palaces of Mysuru, he added.

Titular head of the erstwhile Mysore Royal family Yaduveer Krishnadatta Chamaraja Wadiyar, who spoke after releasing Shivalingappa's another book 'Aramaneya Drushyakale Mattu Kalavidaru,' said that Nalwadi Krishnaraja Wadiyar's rule was the golden era for the State.

Stating that Nalwadi always encouraged art and culture, he said that he was happy that the Government has come forward to name the Mysore Airport at Mandakalli after Nalwadi Krishnaraja Wadiyar and to name the City Railway Station after Chamaraja Wadiyar.

Writer Prof. C. Naganna spoke about the books released on the occasion.

Sri Hosamutt Seer Sri Chidananda Swamiji, Nataraja Pratishtana's Dr. S. Shivarajappa, Mysore Palace Board Deputy Director T.S. Subramanya, Kannada Sahitya Kalakoota President M. Chandrashekar and others were present.

'Sri Kempegowda Seva Ratna' award, Pratibha Puraskar presented

Mysuru, July 27 (MTY&DM)- Maintaining that Nadaprabhu Kempegowda's vision was responsible for the growth of Bengaluru to international levels, MLC Dr. D. Thimmaiah said that the erstwhile ruler should also be credited for organised growth of the city and conservation of numerous lakes and other water bodies in and around Bengaluru.

He was speaking after inaugurating Kempegowda Jayanthi celebrations organised by Karnataka Sena Pade at Rotary Hall on JLB Road here recently.

Pointing out that Kempegowda followed the principles of Basavanna for ensuring social justice for all, Dr. Thimmaiah said that he (Kempegowda) never discriminated among castes and communities and extended benefits to all sections of the society.

Suyog Hospital Founder Dr. S.P. Yoganna, in his address, said that Kempegowda sacrificed everything he had for the well-being of the people.

Recalling that Chamarajpet, Chickpet, Balepet, Cottonpet, Sultanpet etc. in Bengaluru now are all the initiatives of Kempegowda, who had developed these areas based on the occupation of residents, he said that everyone in the State remembers the contributions of the Founder of Bengaluru.

On the occasion, 'Sri Kempegowda Seva Ratna' award was conferred on Dr. C.Y. Shivegowda (Social service), Dr. Krishnakumar Sagar (Politics), C. Mariswamy, President of Mysuru Vokkaliga Association (Organisation), S. Surendra of Nirmiti Kendra (Planning), Dr. M.D. Mohan Kumar of Excise Department (Government Service), Dr. R.H. Also, meritorious students who scored high marks in SSLC were presented with Pratibha Puraskar.

Former Zilla Panchayat (ZP) President K. Marigowda presided. Former Karnataka Government Employees Association President H.K. Ramu, BJP leader Yashaswini Somashekar, Congress leader M. Pradeep Kumar, Poetess Pushpa Iyengar, State Vokkaligara Sangha Working President C.G. Women hockey players must get Railway sports quota: MP

Pratap Simha meets Railway Minister; seeks Kuvempu's name for Mysuru-Thalaguppa Express

Mysuru, July 27 (BCT)- Mysuru-Kodagu MP Pratap Simha has appealed to Railway Minister Ashwin Vaishnaw to rename the Mysuru-Thalaguppa (Shivamogga) Express after Rashtrakavi Kuvempu.

Presenting a memorandum to the Minister at his office in New Delhi yesterday, the MP reasoned that naming the train after the poet laureate Dr. K.V. Puttappa will bring further fame to him (Kuvempu). He brought out the deep connection between Kuvempu and Mysuru, especially the University of Mysore where he served as a Vice-Chancellor.

The MP said that it makes more sense to rename the train after Kuvempu considering his association with Mysuru and Shivamogga, Kuvempu's native place.

Sports quota for women

Placing the demand to appoint women's hockey champions under the sports quota, Pratap Simha told the Minister that there are many women hockey players from Karnataka who have made a mark in national and international hockey. They must be given preference while appointing personnel to the South Western Railway, he urged.

He said that there are many women hockey players from Kodagu and Mysuru and they deserve to be absorbed by the Railways under the sports quota as they have excelled in their fields. Most of the players are from remote corners of Kodagu who have strived hard to make a mark in national and international hockey and they deserve to be recognised, the MP said.

Road overbridge or underbridge

The MP also urged the Minister to make a provision of a road overbridge or road underbridge or a limited height subway in lieu of the level crossing No. 66 between Hanakere and Mandya sections on the Mysuru-Bengaluru double-line electrified section. He said that he has got a representation from a cross-section of people seeking this facility.

He said that due to the level crossing, the movement of people, predominantly carrying agricultural produce from one place to another is disrupted as the gates are closed over 100 times every day leading to traffic pile-ups and disrupting the lifeline of farmers. If the overbridge or the underbridge is constructed, it will allow seamless movement of vehicles without disruption when a train passes, the MP said.

Udyan Express to Mysuru

Considering the rapid growth of Mysuru as an information technology hub taking into account the establishment of various infrastructural projects including the 10-lane Highway from Bengaluru to Mysuru and an expanded airport, there is a need to link Mysuru, the cultural capital of Karnataka with India's financial capital Mumbai.

In this direction, the Mumbai-Bengaluru Udyan Daily Express can be made to start from Mysuru so that it will also help travellers to Mumbai from Mysuru, the MP told the Minister and urged him to extend the Udyan Daily Express to Mysuru. Extension of the train to Mysuru will also boost the industrial growth of the Mysuru region, he reasoned.

Pratap Simha has also sought an increase in the frequency of KSR Bengaluru City Junction to Mangaluru Central via Mysuru from tri-weekly to daily service and the extension of services to Karwar/Kannur as existing before the opening of the alternative route between Bengaluru and Hassan via Kunigal.

WORD OF THE DAY

Validate

Pronunciation: VAL-uh-dayt.
Meaning: To validate something means to "recognise, establish, or illustrate" its worthiness or legitimacy.
Origin: When validate first entered the language in the mid-17th century, its meaning was tied fast to its close relative, the adjective valid: to validate something, such as a marriage or treaty, was to make it legally valid. This meaning is still current, but the word is now used in non-legal and informal contexts. If the museum you visit validates your parking ticket, the museum official marks the ticket and you do not have to pay for parking. If someone's claims cannot be validated, those claims cannot be confirmed. And if a coach puts an untested player into the game and the player scores the winning point, the player's strong performance validates the coach's decision.
Example: "I've had to learn how to validate my own experiences. I now give myself permission to feel angry, upset, disappointed, or whatever negative emotions I'm experiencing."

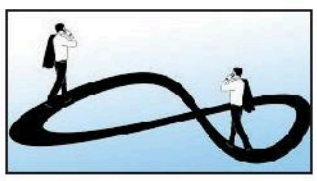
THE ODD WORD

Vaccary

Dairy or cow pasture.

PHRASE OF THE DAY

Vicious circle



Meaning: A self-perpetuating process which returns to its starting point with no improvement from when it was begun.
Origin: A vicious circle was the name given by 18th century logicians for a fallacious proof in this form: A depends on B; B depends on C; C depends on A.
This was alluded to in Edition 3 of The Encyclopedia Britannica, in 1792: "He runs into what is termed by logicians a vicious circle." A wider use of the expression was taken up by the medical profession and there are several examples from the early 19th century of it being used to describe conditions where one symptom affects another and the health of the patient steadily deteriorates.
The more general meaning of the phrase refers to any process where one event feeds off another but which seems trapped in a loop and eventually returns to its starting point, with no benefit gained. This imagery was employed in the 18th and 19th centuries to denote the circle of life and death. The emblem of a snake eating its own tail was commonly used in the iconography of Georgian and Victorian cemeteries - as in this example from Sheffield's General Cemetery.
